

COVID-19 Confirmed Cases in the US in Terms of Percent of State Population

- The following graphic displays the number of COVID-19 cases confirmed in each of the United States in terms of the percent of each state's respective population.
- The cases confirmed numbers were found on the CDC's website, and were updated as of March 26, 2020.
- The state population data is based on the most recent data from the World Population Review website as of March 27, 2020.

